PORTLAND —Tim Malcolm and Kirsten L’Orange, founders of The Civic Projects, are underway in their 14,000-mile cross country journey to promote social awareness and service by volunteering at 50 community organizations in 50 states in 50 days. LearningWorks was selected as their only Maine stop and hosted Malcolm and L’Orange as they put in volunteer hours in the English Language Program, Youth Building Alternatives program, and finished the day with Reiche students at LearningWorks Afterschool. The Civic Projects seeks to bring awareness to community-based service organizations hard-pressed by today’s economic climate. Any funds they raise will be distributed evenly among all 50 non-profits.
